CLASS

You ask how much we'll miss our
Dear high school days
The friends who made us happy
In so many ways.
You ask if we'll remember
The fun we shared
Our memories will last forever
Reminding us we cared.
As we leave
In our hearts will stay
All the things
That we did day by day.

CLASS MOTTO

SONG

You ask if we'll remember
The games when we yelled,
The Junior Senior Prom
Where we danced 'til twelve.
You ask if we'll remember
These things from the past,
Yes, in our hearts we know
They will forever last.
Yes, in our hearts we know
They will forever last.
(tune: "The Twelfth of Never")

Every fall the club planned a float for the homecoming parade and in the spring several members represented the club at the Beta Convention.

OF AMERICA

Any girl in high school could belong to the Future Homemakers of America. Once every month the club held meetings and presented interesting and educational programs. One of the many activities this year was "Hobo Day" in which most of the members participated. As in past years the club adopted a needy family to help at Christmas.

The band, under the leadership of Mr. Harry Lenhoff, finally reached a position this year that had been looked forward to for many years. The marching band and concert band were slightly different in structure this year. The marching band was composed of students from the seventh through the twelfth grades. It played for football games, pep meetings, and parades. The concert band was made up almost entirely of high school students.
